ADVICE TO INTERNATIONAL PASSENGERS ON LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

Passengers embarking upon a journey involving an ultimate destination or a stop in a country other than the country of departure are advised that the provisions of an international treaty (the Warsaw Convention, the 1999 Montreal Convention, or other treaty), as well as a carrier's own contract of carriage or tariff provisions, may be applicable to their entire journey, including any portion entirely within the countries of departure and destination. The applicable treaty governs and may limit the liability of carriers to passengers for death or personal injury, destruction or loss of, or damage to, baggage, and for delay of passengers and baggage.

Additional protection can usually be obtained by purchasing insurance from a private company. Such insurance is not affected by any limitation of the carrier's liability under an international treaty. For further information please consult your airline or insurance company representative.

Conditions of Carriage

Air transportation on Delta and the Delta Connection[®] carriers is subject to Delta's conditions of carriage. They include terms governing for example:

- Limits on our liability for personal injury or death of passengers, and for loss, damage or delay of goods and baggage.
- Claim restrictions including time periods within which you must file a claim or bring action against us.
- Our right to change terms of the contract.
